Another day at PHS...

Chief calls

So what about pond water?

Though her stout and sturdy walls are cracked and soiled through long and trying years, the spirit, prestige, and memories nearly haunt her well-worn halls. To the students, it is the wonderland of knowledge, bursting with the excitement of things to learn.

Our school offers much more than most students take advantage of. It's not just pure, hard knowledge we strive for, but the structure of character and difference in right and wrong. We learn to deal with everyday problems, and important decisions seem easy after a small discussion or exchange. Through our school years we have come to know friendship and the warm secure feeling of being a part. We like to kid ourselves and say how much we dislike school, but we will surely miss it when we leave.

PHS is not just some gruesome, stern faces of the faculty, or hard, long hours studying; it's the little things that make our high school special....

The Wildcats tied for the Mid-Southern Baseball Championship for the second consecutive year. Their record was 7-1. The only defeat was by the Camden-Frontier Redskins in the next to the last game. In the last game of the season, the Wildcats, played and defeated the North Adams Rams. By winning this game the Wildcats kept the All Sports trophy for the second consecutive year. Ron Smith, as a sophomore, led the team in hitting.

1965 Mid-Southern Champion Track Team

The '65 Wildcat Track Squad had a successful season. It was successful enough to take their fourth Mid-Southern Track Championship.

Bob Clement and Hal Evans qualified for and went to the state meet at Central Michigan University.

Cross-Country Team Undefeated in Dual Meets

The Pittsford Cross-Country team, known as the Ridgerunners, finished the cross-country season with a record of 12 wins and no losses. The team consisted of five Juniors, one Sophomore, and two Seniors. Wayne Huff, a Junior, finished first for the Ridgerunners most of the season. The Ridgerunners were able to have new uniforms this year. The course, said to be the toughest one around, is located in Lost Nations about two miles south on Pittsford Road. The Ridgerunners competed in the Regional meet at Napoleon, placing fourth, but this was not good enough for them to go to the State meet.

The season well over now, we look back, remembering some of the events that took place during this championship year. We remember the pre-season practices; the hard, huff-tuff drills that molded young, inexperienced material into Varsity material. The feeling of tenseness in the air, we were not the team defending four consecutive championships in the Mid-Southern Conference. They called us the "dark horse." "They'll never do it!" people remarked. We weren't sure ourselves, but we justified ourselves in our first game with Jonesville. It was a non-conference game, but an important one. We had to prove what we could do--and we did. Throughout the next practice week some of the butterflies went away, as we was ourselves becoming a real team. The most decisive game finally came, Hanover-Horton. It was a long bus-ride up there, and all of us were ready to do our best--not a word was said, and none were needed. This was the first year for Hanover in the Conference and we didn't know much about each other. We gave them a Wildcat welcome and we came home happy. The weeks began to fly by now, it seemed, North Adams, Camden Frontier, and Tekonsha--all behind us now and we were champs--we had proven ourselves worthy of the title. We would not stop here, though, we had to go undefeated--it was a must! Addison and Waldron sacrificed for the cause. Springport! Our last game! Could we do it? Yes, we could! We were high and mighty--we couldn't be beaten! It rained throughout the game, but we didn't feel the mud and cold. All we could feel was our undefeated season slipping away. We out-played em! We knew! But the score showed the only factor necessary for our defeat. As we started home it was quiet, with only the sound of the bus on the well-worn road. The silence was broken--we found ourselves laughing and joking--"We are Champs!" And we wouldn't have it any other way!

Starting five--raring to go

The Pittsford Wildcats had a discouraging year, if you look at the record. With only three returning lettermen, the squad was young and inexperienced. It took a few games for them to get used to playing varsity ball. There was also a height disadvantage, with no one over six feet.

Ron Murphy and Harold Scharp were appointed honorary captains. Steve Minor was the Most Valuable Player, Outstanding Defensive Player, and leading scorer. The leading rebounder was Larry Glaser. The "Ball Hawk" award went to Ron Smith. Bob Mackey was the winner of the free throw award. Harold Scharp received the coach's award for the best mental attitude, which was given for the first time this year.

"66 Baseball Team Finishes Second

There were two seniors on the Pittsford Wildcat Baseball team. Although they were young and inexperienced, the team had a successful season, tying for second place.

Larry Glaser led the team in hitting, with Mike Hoover and Bob Mackey doing most of the pitching. Larry Glaser also did some pitching. The team successfully completed eight double plays.

Early conditioning and tremendous desire proved important to the successful season enjoyed by the 1966 track team. Led by co-captains Kirkpatrick and Bavin, they sprinted, hurdled, and jumped to an undefeated and untied season.

May 17th, the date of the Mid-Southern Conference meet, became the significant and principle goal. The team slogan was "Remember May 17." Hard work and a taste of competition during the regular season meets eased the queasiness and shaped the talent that makes a championship team.

May 17 finally arrived, and the Wildcats returned victorious. Performances were remarkable under the weather and track conditions, with three new league records set. Ron Murphy was the high individual scorer with 15 1/2 points and a new record in the low hurdles of 21.1. Ron Smith set the league record in the 440 yd. dash at 53.2, and the Pittsford 880 yd. relay team also set a new record of 1:37.4. Pittsford trailed North Adams at the end of the field events, but the runners made up the deficit and the final results showed the Wildcats 32 points ahead of the second-place Rams.

Ron Murphy and Ron Smith were high scorers for the season with 170 and 150 points respectively.

GAA Program Begun

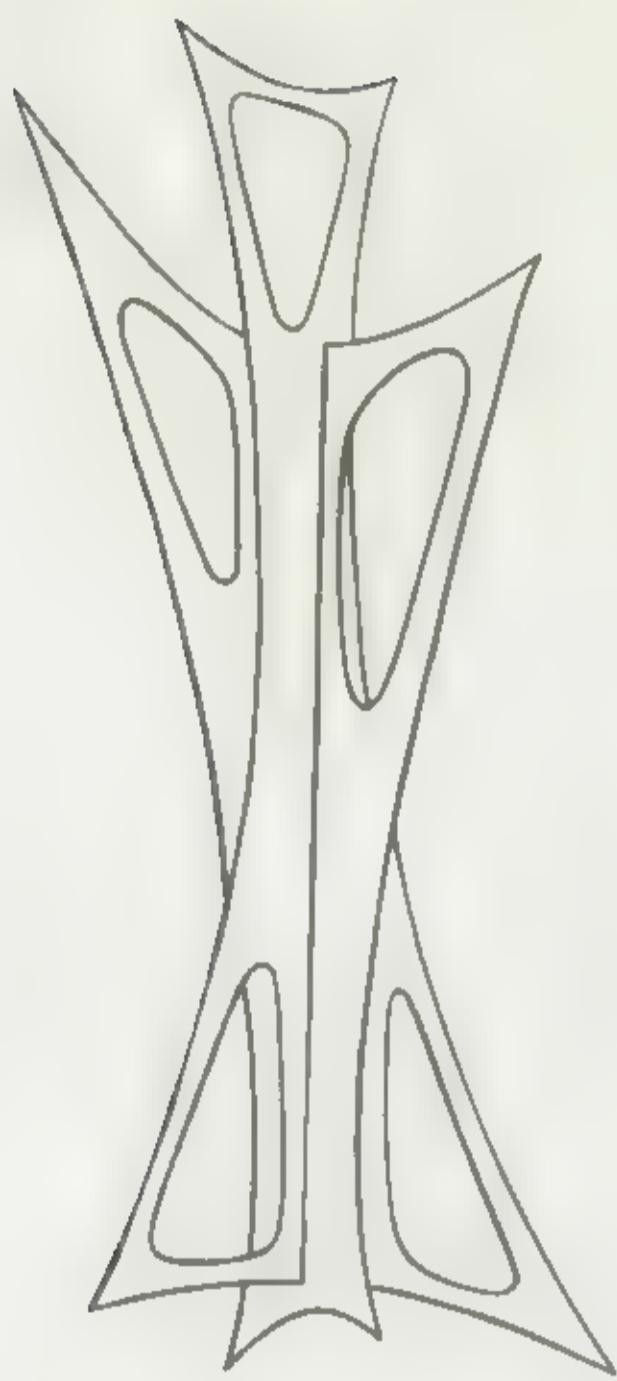

This year was the first for the G.A.A. at Pittsford High. A committee, headed by Mary King, was appointed to write the constitution for the club. This constitution was accepted by the members on May 11, 1966.

The activities of the year included football, basketball and bowling.

In football, the girls had several nights of practice and to climax the season a scrimmage under the lights.

Before playing Wallron twice and Hudson once in basketball, the girls practiced at least once every week. They played one other game which was with the women of the community.

In bowling, a bus was taken twice by the girls to the Hillside Lanes in Hillsdale. Preceeding these trips to the lanes, a classroom session was held to instruct the girls in the fundamentals of bowling and in scorekeeping.

Homecoming Game Success,

The Pittsford Wildcats held their homecoming, October 15th. After a delay because of a fault in the lighting system, the game got underway at 9:30. During the half time the classes presented their floats. The first float was that of the I.I.A which consisted of a tractor pulling a corn picker with the motto "Pick'em and crib'em."

The 8th grade float symbolized slave driving. It was a master driving 6 slaves.

The freshman float had a can of Raid, a flower and a bee. The motto for this float was "Knock'em dead."

Next came the sophomore float. This float took third place. It was a mixer, and a canister, and the motto was "Mix'em up."

Next came the Junior float. This float took first place. It was a blue whale which rocked back and forth. Helium filled balloons were sent drifting out of the float. The last float of the evening was the second-place Senior float, a pirate ship. On the high sail was a huge letter "P".

After the floats came the cars bearing Queen Bonnie Milliman and her court: Jill Gier, Senior; Janet Elwer, Senior; Diana Sheriff, Junior; Lynn Sloan, Sophomore; and Marsha Tuckerman, Freshman. Bonnie was crowned by the tri-captains. Bonnie's big night was topped by being honored at a Homecoming dance which was given by the Seniors.

P.H.S. Cheerleaders Boost Spirit

The cheerleaders gave a very unusual pep rally at Homecoming. It was a parade, led by the band, and consisting of a truck load of 1965-66 Football Champs, the cheerleaders who led the cheers, and the student body.

The cheerleaders traveled to Ypsilanta to attend a cheerleading clinic all day, and found out when they arrived they were a week late.

Along with their advisor Mrs. Gordon, the girls had a number of projects in order to make money. They sold pennants, sweatshirts, bracelets, charms, wildcat pins, and programs. The money received goes toward buying their outfits.

Varsity, Booster Clubs Add to Sports

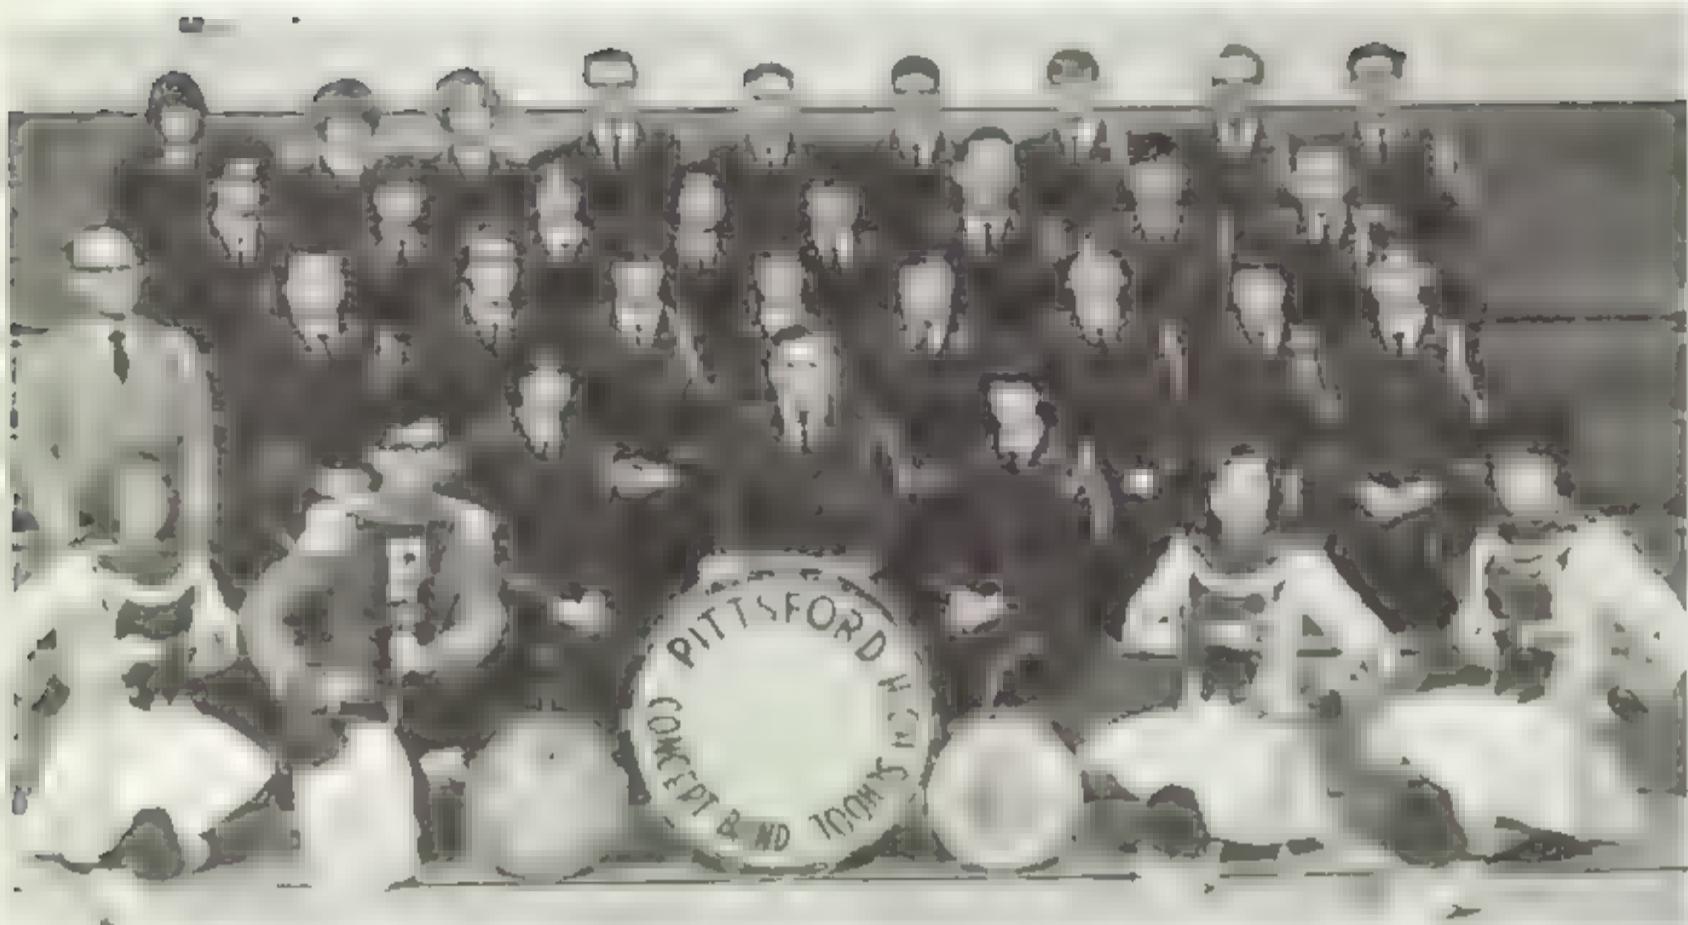

The Pittsford Athletic Booster Club engaged in many worthwhile projects this year. As you see here they decided to see what the women around P.H.S. really do.

A pancake supper was one of their main projects. The area men put their aprons on, whipped up the pancakes, received dish pan hands, but it was a lot of fun. Then came the first womenless wedding in P.H.S. history. Men put their wigs in curls, their frilly little dresses on, and had a wonderful time doing it all.

On Memorial Day the chicken barbecue ended the Booster Club's activities for the year.

Mr. Midnight gets rid of O'Brien

Slumber party interrupted by ghost

Junior Play:

No Boys Allowed

Rita and Fred were practically engaged until Rita caught Fred at the airport kissing a blonde. The blonde was Fred's cousin but Rita didn't know that. Rita was giving a slumber party and Fred thought that this would be a good time to show her how much of a hero he was and also to get her back. During the slumber party the maid, Victrola, was always getting hugged by the hugger man, as she called him. At first the girls didn't believe her but later on they were scared by this so called prowler. The girls thought that it was Fred and Jerry up to their old pranks but it was really the Midnight Prowler, who had been terrorizing the town for weeks. Not only do the girls get scared by the prowler but a policeman even gets into the act. Many ordeals are encountered in the play but in the end, things turn out just fine.

OHhh Freddy!

Senior Play: "Lock, Stock, and Lipstick"

Gordon Warren was guidance counselor at Penbroke High School for nine years until one September morning when a Miss Jane Gardner literally moved into his office, "Lock, Stock, and Lipstick". Gordon, a bachelor for thirty-two years, didn't quite know how to react to a woman who has suddenly moved in with him. Of course, being a male, he hit the ceiling, and not from delight. But, with a little fatherly advice from Charlie the janitor and a little too much of Miss Entwhistle the principal, Gordon finds out that Jane isn't a bad counselor, for a wife.

Mary Lou's fainting spell prove to complicate matters even more.

I just can't believe it, not my little Larry."

Dancing at the prom

Juniors Have Big Splash

Once again the Juniors, with much hard work and preparation came through with one of the biggest social events of the year---The Junior Prom.

The theme this year was Kapture of The Deep. Decorations gave the illusion of the world below the sea.

The entrance was a large cave which opened into a beautiful underwater world. The gym was alive with a variety of deepsea fish and beautifully colored fish net. Over the stage hung a large sunken ship.

The music was furnished by the Drexel Lamb Orchestra situated on the stage to appear in a great hole in the hull of the ship. The chairman for this year's prom was Larry Julian.

Sound of Music

The Junior-Senior Banquet was attended by about 300 people. The banquet was in honor of this year's parting Seniors. Marcia Vernier was chairman of the banquet and chose the title of "Sound of Music" because the Seniors saw this movie while on their Senior Trip. The sophomores, dressed in Tyrolean costume, served the meal. To go along with the title, Mrs. Carla Perrin sang the overture of "The Sound of Music." Marcia and her committee chose a speaker from each class to talk on a song title from the movie. The master of ceremonies was Steve Minor. "Climb Every Mountain" was the topic for Barbara Cox the freshman speaker. The sophomore speaker was Mike Hoover whose topic was "Something Good". Marcia Vernier spoke for the Juniors on the topic, "My Favorite Things" Speaking for the departing seniors was Gerry Burke whose topic was "I Have Confidence". The Rev. Thomas Toy was the main speaker for the evening and spoke on "The Sound of Music."
